ADVOCACY

By teaching people with disabilities the skills they need to advocate for themselves, we provide an added level of independence for the people we serve.

INDEPENDENT LIVING SKILLS

Hands-on training in important everyday skills – from cooking to budgeting – helping people learn how to live on their own.

INFORMATION AND REFERRAL

Connecting people with the information they need in the fields of independent living and disabilities.

PEER COUNSELING

Providing opportunities for people with disabilities to talk, one-on-one or in a group, about life experiences.

TRANSITION

Facilitate the transition of individuals with significant disabilities.

Nursing Home Deterrence
Nursing Home Transition
Youth Transition Services

COMMUNITY LIVING SERVICES

Assisting people in obtaining accessible, affordable housing, transportation, etc.

HOME MODIFICATION ADAPTIVE DEVICES

Improving living situations by assisting with home modifications, such as ramps or lift chairs, and adaptive devices, such as reachers and hand controls.

TELECOMMUNICATION ADAPTIVE DEVICES

Providing adapted telecommunication services, such as an emergency phone dialer.

AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT

Serving as an educator for contractors, businesses and individuals in regard to ADA guidelines and accessibility.
